AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"The Newlyweds" at Barre Opera House This Evening.

Daniel Murphy, the genial and eccentric comedian of "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," which appear at the Barre opera house to-night, being already rich by name, will also at some time in the ordinary course of events be rich by inheritance. For this happy go-lucky youngster, whose eccentricities on the vaudeville stage in "Night in a London Music Hall" brought him the excellent part of the "German Waiter," in "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," has a wealthy father who Danny thinks a little too unsophisticated to travel the bright district. The story goes that "Danny's expense" that father and son were strolling down Broadway one summer evening and entering a favorite resort of the son, son gave dad a cigar.

Dad enjoyed it and asked if they could be brought to this place regularly. Learning that they could, dad entered the place the next day and inquired for a cigar like the son smokes. "Twenty-five cents each," said the clerk pushing out several and ignoring dad's proffered dime. "Take 'em back," said dad in a breathless sort of fashion. "Why," said the clerk, "if you are really the rich Mr. Murphy, the comedian's father, you ought to be able to smoke twenty-five cent cigars if your boy can." "The boy has a rich dad," said the old man, "I haven't."—Adv.

SENATOR LODGE UNDER KNIFE

Operated on Last Friday to Remove Gastric
Ulcer

LIFE IN JEOPARDY
FOR 24 HOURS

But Now Believed He Will Recover—Condition
Satisfactory

Nahant, Mass., Sept. 30.—United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was placed under a surgeon's knife last Friday.

The operation was to remove a gastric ulcer at a time when the senator's physicians regarded his condition as extremely critical; his age, 64, and recent strain of congressional affairs being against him.

For 24 hours after the operation the life of the statesman was believed to be in jeopardy.

Last night a bulletin issued by the senator's secretary states that Senator Lodge's condition is entirely satisfactory.

News of the operation and illness did not become public until yesterday.

WOMEN TO DEFEND ALLEGED SLAYER

Mysterious Killing on the George Gould Estate in New Jersey to be Probed.

New York, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Jasper Lynch, philanthropist and society leader, noted in New York and Lakewood for her brilliant entertainments and her generous charities, will assume her most courageous role when she appears in the criminal court at Toms River, N. J., as the defender of a man accused of murder.

The man is William Leehan, a stenographer, charged with the mysterious murder which has baffled Lakewood for two years—the killing of Mrs. Caroline Turner in a thicket of Pine Needle lane, on the George Gould estate, April 26, 1911.

"Simply to see that justice is done, and to see that the man who has engaged me, Mr. Leehan, is innocent," is the reason Mrs. Lynch gives for her espousal of the defendant's cause. Leehan was formerly employed by her as a stenographer, and she had such confidence in his integrity that she immediately came to his aid when accusation was lodged against him.

Able counsel engaged by Mrs. Lynch will be directed by her in person during a trial which is expected to be one of the hardest fought that the state of New Jersey has ever seen.

The Lynch fortune and the sincere conviction of one of the most respected and powerful women of the community will be pitted against the admitted "poverty" of Ocean county, but no less forceful conviction of Prosecutor Harry Newman that Leehan is guilty.

The slain woman was the wife of Charles N. Turner, a gardener of Georgian court, the Gould estate. She set out on the day of her death to deliver two waists which she had made. She was never seen alive.

Two days later the body was found under a pile of leaves in Pine Needle lane.

SAYS ULSTER MEN ARE WELL ARMED

Unionist Leaders Resent Redmond's Scornful Allusion to "Wooden Rifles."

London, Sept. 30.—Unionist leaders in London declared that the Ulster volunteers, organized to support Sir Edward Carson's provisional government, are well supplied with modern rifles and ammunition, instead of the wooden muskets that John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, scornfully referred to yesterday in his Cahirciveen speech.

They said that many thousands of new rifles are now strategically concealed. Custom officials recently confiscated several large shipments of rifles consigned to Ireland.

PINKLETS

The New Laxative

If other laxative remedies disappoint you, try PINKLETS. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, easy to take, do not gripe or irritate but gently assist nature.

Strong, harsh purgatives defeat the very hope of a cure by leaving the bowels dry and the constipation becomes aggravated. PINKLETS slightly stimulate the stomach, thorough digestion being essential to the cure of constipation.

So gentle and natural is their action that there is no fear of continuing the use of PINKLETS too long. They never lessen their helpfulness. They can be taken with any other medicine.

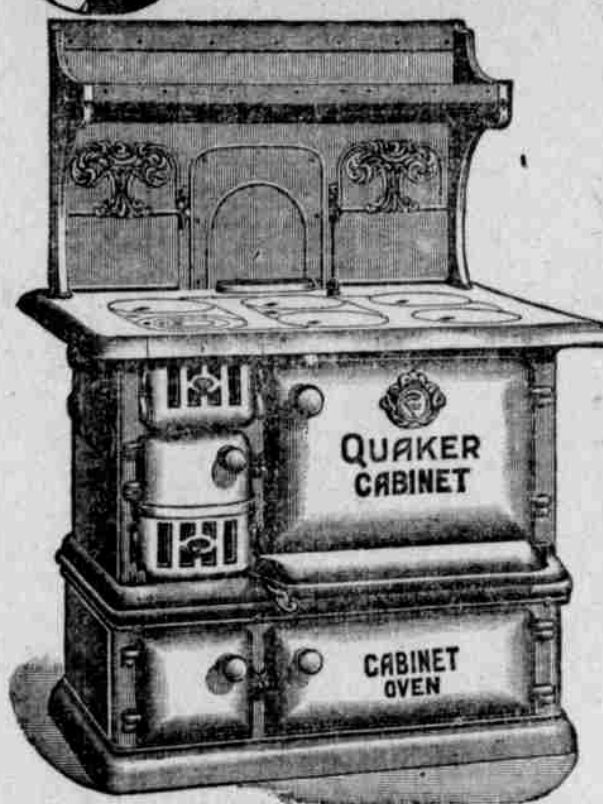

PINKLETS are recommended in cases of torpid liver, biliousness, constipation and headache, to clear the complexion and whenever a gentle laxative is required. Every druggist can now supply this new laxative.

SEATTLE SOCIALISTS DEFIANT.

They Will Disobey Injunctions Against Street Speaking, They Announce.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 30.—Announcements were made yesterday at meeting of Socialists that injunctions forbidding street speaking issued by Superior Judge John E. Humphreys, would be set at naught in a campaign of open air addresses that the Socialists declare they mean to inaugurate. Sunday night the police took a hand in the controversy by arresting two Socialist street speakers, Kate Sadler and William McNally, both of whom were released under bonds of $250. Following the announcement that the fifty persons now under arrest for contempt would demand jury trial when their cases were called before Judge Humphreys, it was stated that the defendants intended to ask for separate trials. This, it is said, would swamp all departments of the Superior Court for weeks.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than
You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of the ordinary cough more quickly, usually conquering it in 24 hours. Excellent, too, for spasmodic croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and bronchitis.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help relieve a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quaiacal and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been imitated, but the old successful mixture has never been equalled. It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

New Tariff Bill Will Make

Cheer Up

FOODSTUFFS
ARE REDUCED

Meats, Milk and Eggs Put on the Free
List

Washington, Sept. 30.—All articles of foodstuffs, by comparison with the rates of the existing law, are reduced substantially by the Democratic tariff bill, which in a few days now becomes a law. The Democratic "free market basket" has gone by the board. The contents of the market basket will not be entirely free under the Democratic tariff. Many of the products of use on the American average table will be free, however. Chief among these will be meats, milk and eggs.

Practically all vegetables are continued on the dutiable list. Potatoes will be admitted free when coming from countries that give free access to our potatoes. The same principle is applied in the case of wheat. These two commodities, imported from countries that tax our products, will have to pay a countervailing duty of 10 per cent ad valorem.

The Democratic tariff on cattle, sheep and other animals intended for food are free of duty, whereas these products are assessed 10 per cent ad valorem by the present law. Eggs, which will be admitted free under the new tariff, are taxed 5 cents a dozen by the present law.

Milk, another article free listed by the Democrats, now pays 2 cents a gallon at the custom houses. Cream, also admitted free by the pending bill, pays 5 cents a gallon.

Bread will pay a rate of 25 per cent

under the new law, as it does at present.

Salt is taxed at 7 cents a pound by the present law. It will be admitted free by the new.

Sugar will be free at the end of three years.

Butter is taxed at 6 cents a pound. Two and a half cents a pound will be levied on it under the new law.

Flour will be admitted free from such countries as admit the American product free. Otherwise it will pay a duty of 45 cents a barrel. The present rate is 50 cents a barrel.

Cheese pays 6 cents a pound at present; it will pay 2 1/2 cents hereafter.

The present law taxes vinegar 7 1/2 cents a gallon. The Democrats reduce the rate to 4 cents.

Apples, peaches, quinces, cherries, plums and pears, green or ripe, will pay 10 cents a bushel under the new tariff as compared with 25 cents at present. Edible berries will pay half a cent a quart; one cent a quart is now levied.

Lemons, limes, grape fruit and oranges will be taxed at one-half a cent a pound as compared with one cent at present. Pineapples will pay $3 a 1,000 instead of $8 a 1,000, and bananas are free.
